

Yome-e-Takreem shuhda-e-Pakistan

The “Yome-e-Takreem shuhda-e-Pakistan” a Martyrs Honor Day was Celebrated at the University of Sufism and Modern Sciences (USMS) Bhitshah under the generous guidance of worthy Vice-Chancellor Prof. Dr. Parveen Munshi, while a large number of faculty members, non-teaching staff, and students attended the ceremony and paid worth much tribute to the national heroes of Pakistan, whose precious blood was rendered for the country. The Martyrs Honor Day ceremony began with the recitation of a few verses from the Holy Quran and the national anthem was recited by all and sundry with engrossing interest. The ceremony began with the words of worthy Vice-Chancellor Prof. Dr. Parveen Munshi, “Today we solemn to hold our martyrs with high esteem and respect including their families and we always firmly stand to honor and respect them”. The speeches and national songs were performed by students while a Fatiha was offered as well. A walk was arranged within the neck of the woods displaying play cards, banners, and chanting voices of students’ slogans “Pakistan Zinda Abad, Our National Heroes Zinda Abad, Martyrs are our proud”.

Prof. Dr. Parveen Munshi, Vice-Chancellor said in her concluding remarks, “We are proud of our courageous martyrs who displayed the spirit of patriotism and fearlessness in testing times throughout their history. We along with the nation owe to the heroism and sacrifices offered by the national heroes. It is our academic goal to promote national integrity and tolerance among young students to pay tribute to our national heroes “Shuhda-e-Pakistan”. Prof. Dr. Arshad Saleem was having the same statement of high honor and regard for the national martyrs whose sacrifices are the prestige chapter of Pakistan. The event was organized by the genuine endeavors of Syed Wasif Ali Shah. He made it well-sequential from start to finish.
